

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, 1882, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. (1882) My darling
ae Al ec:

I did not have time before you started to collect my wits sufficiently to tell you what I wanted from Washington. Well then I want 1st the box that came from Paris with us. 2nd. Of the boxes that were sent from Rome I want the 1st. a long low box containing Turkish rugs, and the big square one. I want you to see if that easel came with the Mosaic and be sure to secure our precious statues, I think this is all.

Now good bye, Nothing has happened since you left but it is wonderful how I miss you the moment you are out of reach.

Ever yours lovingly, Did you manage to open this? I am delighted with it whether my correspondents are is not to the purpose. Fourthly particularly want my lamp. Fifthly want my Roman Arm Chair.
